Irish Single Pot Still Whiskey of the Year & Overall Irish Whiskey of the Year

Redbreast 21 Year Old Single Pot Still

70cl / 46%

Scoring an average of nearly 90/100 amongst our blind tasters it is no surprise that this whiskey has won both of these awards for the 2nd year running. This is simply an amazing whiskey and a perfect representation of the pot still style.

€184.<sup>95</sup>

Best Irish Cask Strength Whiskey

Tullamore Dew Phoenix

70cl / 55%

A fine blend of grain whiskey, malt whiskey and pot still whiskeys which have been collectively finished in Oloroso sherry barrels. Quite potent at 55% but packed full of flavour.

€59.<sup>99</sup>

Best Irish Blended Whiskey (Over €60)

Midleton Very Rare 2015

70cl / 40%

It is no real surprise that the Midleton Very Rare came out on top in this category. It is often the yardstick against which all other blended Irish whiskeys are measured. We first tried the 2015 earlier in the year and the pot still character was impressive, as well as some delicious fresh Bourbon barrel influences.

€149.<sup>95</sup>

Best Irish Single Malt 12 Years and Under

Connemara Peated Irish Single Malt

70cl / 40%

Connemara is the flag flying representative for Irish peated whiskey and already has a good number of awards to its name. Most voters seemed to love this whiskey and its smoky fruit and vanilla flavours. It may be time to try it again!

€42.<sup>99</sup>

Best Irish Single Malt 13 Years and Over

Knappogue Castle 2000 Mongeard-Mugneret Burgundy Cask Finish

70cl / 46%

We are very happy that this won an award. It is simply one of the best whiskeys we have tasted this year. Even though we had a part in the making of this, we were overwhelmed at just how good it is! It won't last long; there were only 366 bottles produced.

€99.<sup>99</sup>

Best Irish Single Grain Whiskey

Kilbeggan 8 Year Old Single Grain

70cl / 40%

One of the most delicate and softly textured of all Irish whiskeys. Kilbeggan Single Grain is a great aperitif style whiskey that also mixes well in cocktails.

€39.<sup>99</sup>

Best Irish Blended Whiskey (Under €60)

Tullamore Dew 12 Year Old

70cl, 40%

A high pot still content and some good use of Oloroso Sherry barrels, no doubt played a part in this gaining a trophy. This is an unusual blend which contains grain, malt and pot still whiskeys. It is surprisingly complex and spicy, but with all the smoothness you would want from an Irish blend.

NOT BACK UNTIL 2016

Celtic Cask Whiskeys

Our exclusive range of carefully matured single cask whiskeys continues to grow from strength to strength. They are usually limited to around 300 bottles per cask and each new release is unique. We carefully select different types of barrels from our wine contacts around the world. Some previous favourites have been aged in Port, Madeira, red wine and even sweet Vin Santo wine casks. Each cask is aged to perfection and we have to sample them regularly before choosing the exact moment for bottling. Due to their limited nature these sell out quite quickly and make an excellent gift for whiskey drinkers and collectors.

Look out for more in this range in early 2016!

Celtic Cask 12 Dó Dhéag

70cl / 46%

Aged for 15 years with almost all of those final five years ageing in a red wine cask from Domain des Anges in the Rhone Valley. This is a smooth and malty tasting whiskey that has picked up some delicious red fruit, cola and chocolate notes from the wine cask.

€125 •

Celtic Cask 13 Trí Déag

70cl / 46%

This fourteen year old whiskey was initially matured in a first fill bourbon barrel before a final period of finishing in a Brunello di Montalcino red wine barrel from Altesino. This has some amazing flavours of fresh figs, marmalade, raisins, mocha and toffee.

€135 •

Knappogue Castle

An innovative company who are releasing some great quality single malts. The brand was started by the American Mark Edwin Andrews when he released some rare whiskeys from the old Tullamore Distillery. They now source their malts from a well-known Co. Antrim distillery.

Knappogue Castle 12 Year Old

70cl / 40%

A great example of how good triple distilled Irish single malt can get. This is soft, creamy and light with some lovely citrus and apricot fruit flavours. Vanilla and spice characters on the finish.

€47.<sup>99</sup>

Knappogue Castle 14 Year Old

70cl / 40%

Named "twin cask" because both Bourbon and Sherry cask types have been used for maturation. The Sherry casks have added to the body and depth, bringing some spice and dried fruit flavours.

€66.<sup>95</sup>

Knappogue Castle Single Cask Series

These exclusive whiskeys have been made by us in collaboration with Knappogue Castle. We sourced some interesting casks from wine producers and finished the single malt for a period to create something that is really special. They are very interesting whiskeys, batch 1 sold out very quickly and we are now onto batch number 2.

Knappogue Castle 2000 Mongeard-Mugneret Burgundy Cask Batch 2

70cl / 46%

As mentioned on page 3, this was the winner of Irish Single Malt of the Year (13 Years and Older) at the 2015 Irish Whiskey Awards. This is simply amazing stuff, packed with juicy fruit flavours, warm spice and sweet chocolate notes.

€99.<sup>99</sup>

Knappogue Castle 2000 Marco di Bartoli Marsala Cask Batch 2

70cl / 46%

We have always loved Marsala cask matured whiskeys. Batch number 1 of this series was one of our favourite Irish whiskeys released last year, and this one is just as good. The Marsala cask has added touches of caramel toffees, banoffee pie, rum 'n' raisin, and mocha.

€99.<sup>99</sup>

Hyde 10 Year Single Malt President's Cask

70cl / 46%

This is a double distilled single malt that was initially matured in ex-Bourbon barrels and finished in ex-Oloroso sherry barrels. It gets its name from Douglas Hyde, the first president of Ireland.

€69.<sup>99</sup>

Hyde Rum 10 Year Old Rum Finish

70cl / 46%

Single malt whiskey aged initially for 10 years in first fill oak bourbon casks, followed by a further 9 months in charred Dark caribbean Rum casks, made from American white oak. Offers tropical fruits on the nose such as passion fruit, vanilla and butter toffee. The palate is complex with flavours of vanilla, ginger, lime and apple. Rich and spicy finish.

€69.<sup>99</sup>

Refusing to rest on their laurels Irish Distillers have continued to improve and expand their range of whiskeys. Last year they opened a new still house and have also built a new warehouse to help mature their impressive line-up of whiskeys. Single Pot Still fans have been rewarded with some interesting new releases. These have included the innovative Dair Ghaelach range of Midletons which have been matured in single origin Irish oak and some impressive changes to the Powers and Greenspot ranges.

Powers Single Cask No 62690 16 Year Old

70cl / 46%

Celtic Whiskey Shop Exclusive

This special single pot still was carefully selected by Midleton's Master Blender and is our first exclusive whiskey to bear the Powers name. It has all the trademark Powers spiciness and richness combined with tropical fruit flavours and touches of honey and vanilla. It evolves nicely in the glass and has a wonderfully complex character.

ARRIVING EARLY DECEMBER

€195.00

Powers Three Swallow Release

70cl / 40%

Newly released in 2015, this is a traditional style pot still whiskey with a robust and spicy flavour. We also tasted some glorious barley sugar, banana and subtle sherry nuances. This is set to become the benchmark Powers pot still label and we like it a lot, especially at this price.

€44.99

Green Spot Single Pot Still

70cl / 40%

A classic Irish pot still whiskey that harks back to the days when wine merchants would bottle famous whiskeys under their own labels. This has always been closely associated with Jameson and would make the ideal gift for any Jameson drinker who might be looking for something special.

€59.95

Yellow Spot Single Pot Still

70cl / 46%

A uniquely aged Irish whiskey which has spent time in both ex-Bourbon, Sherry and also Malaga sweet wine casks. This possesses plenty of body, a really good balance of fruit and spice flavours along with some lovely honeyed sweetness.

€79.95

Midleton Barry Crockett Legacy

70cl / 46%

Named after the famed Master Distiller who retired in 2013. This was Barry Crockett's final project and is widely regarded as his finest creation. The pot still whiskey is matured in both ex-Bourbon and fresh, unused American oak. It is packed full of sweet vanilla, candied peel and honey flavours.

€215

Redbreast 12 Year Old

70cl / 40%

This has always ranked very highly amongst our staff. Redbreast is a slightly heavier style of pot still whiskey compared to the rest of Midleton's whiskeys. The added bonus of ageing in some Oloroso Sherry casks gives this whiskey a rich, fruit-cake and spice laden flavour.

€59.00

Redbreast 12 Year Old Cask Strength

70cl / 57.4%

Do not be put off by the high strength. This is simply designed to showcase Redbreast in the exact condition in which it leaves the cask. This fantastic pot still won 'Best Irish Whiskey' at the 2013 Irish Whiskey Awards and has gone on to impress many others. A truly majestic whiskey.

€88.99

What a year it has been for the Teeling Whiskey Company. The company, which was formed in 2013, started distilling their own spirit in Dublin's Newmarket Square in April. This was a revival of distilling in the city after an absence of nearly forty years and the handsome distillery has brought some welcome life back into the area. They have significant stocks of mature whiskey from other distilleries and the current releases have been winning awards all over the world.

Teeling Small Batch Irish Whiskey

70cl / 46%

A sweet and fruity blend of Irish grain and malt whiskeys, married in rum casks. Expect flavours of fresh apricot, pears and apples with some spicy vanilla-infused oak. Dry on the finish with some sappy wood coming through.

€37.99

Teeling Single Grain Whiskey

70cl / 46%

Single grain whiskey is all about smoothness and delicate flavours. If you like easy-going, sipping whiskey then this is for you. Some final maturation in Californian red wine barrels has added some sweet fruitiness and depth to the flavour.

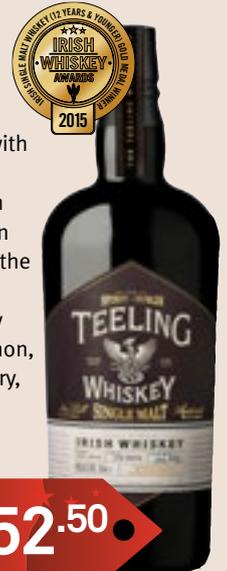

€44.95

Teeling Single Malt

70cl / 46%

One of our favourite Irish single malts. This is sourced from an undisclosed distillery with the oldest components having been distilled in 1991. A unique selection of barrels are used for the final maturation. These include white Burgundy wine, Cabernet Sauvignon, Madeira, Port and Sherry, all of which contribute to the complexity and smoothness of the whiskey.

€52.50

Teeling Single Madeira Cask Number 925

70cl / 55.7%

Celtic Whiskey Shop Exclusive

This is superb value for a single cask Irish whiskey. Exclusive to the Celtic Whiskey Shop this was distilled in 2001 and initially matured in a Bourbon cask before being finished in a single Madeira drum. It is richly textured and packed with flavours of raisins, banoffee pie and caramel chocolates.

€85.00

Teeling Revival 15 Year Old Single Malt

70cl / 46%

The Revival is a special limited edition single malt that celebrates the revival of distilling in Dublin. It is the first ever bottling of Irish Single Malt that has been fully matured in Rum Barrels for 15 years. Rich aromas of brown sugar, raisin, vanilla and allspice. Clean dry finish with lingering wood tannins.

€100

Kilbeggan Distilling Company

Tyrconnell Single Malt

70cl / 40%

This un-peated single malt has a wonderfully fruity character which is bolstered by touches of oak, vanilla and spice. A great aperitif style of malt with a very broad appeal.

€38.99

Kilbeggan 21 Year Old

70cl / 46%

A recent release from the Kilbeggan Distilling Company, a fine blend of grain and malt whiskey from the Cooley Distillery. This has all the smoothness you would expect from an Irish whiskey which combines beautifully with spicier flavours of nutmeg, almond and Christmas cake.

€125

Connemara 12 Year Old

70cl / 40%

The 12-year-old edition of Connemara single malt has a full, rounded and complex flavour that is both smooth and smoky at the same time. Only limited amounts of Connemara 12 Year Old are made each year. It's well worth trying for anyone who's a fan of Scotch whiskey and wants to dip their toe into Irish.

€76.99

Connemara 22 Year Old

70cl / 46%

Remarkable freshness and liveliness given the age of this whiskey. Drawn from some of the oldest 1st fill ex-Bourbon barrels laying at the distillery, this has some light smoke flavours and the typical ripe fruitiness you would expect. Great value for money.

€170

Glendalough

One of Ireland's newest craft distilleries. Glendalough was set up by a group of friends who were passionate about Irish spirits and wanted to revive small scale production of uniquely Irish products. They have a small craft distillery, with keen focus on sourcing local produce.

Glendalough 7 Year Old Irish Whiskey

70cl / 40%

A great release of 7 year old double distilled single malt. This is surprisingly good considering it is quite youthful. Powerful and fruity with flavours of ginger, spice, citrus peel and oak.

€47.50

Glendalough 13 Year Old Irish Whiskey

70cl / 40%

Unlucky for some, but not for Glendalough. This 13 year old has been entirely matured in 1st fill ex-Bourbon barrels and has a velvety mouthfeel with layers of spice, dusty oak and vanilla fudge flavours.

€75

Glendalough Winter Gin

70cl / 43%

Fresh aroma of winter pine and ripe green apples, hints of cloves and cinnamon on the palate with a long fresh finish. Every season, Glendalough distillery work with a local forager collecting the freshest and most interesting botanicals the wilds of wicklow has to offer.

LIMITED AVAILABILITY €47.50

Walsh Whiskey

In early October we were excited to see the large copper pot stills arrive at the new Walsh Distillery in Bagenalstown, Co Carlow. Work is progressing nicely on their new distillery and we should expect the spirit to start flowing in early 2016. Expect to see some even more interesting things from them in the future.

Writers Tears Copper Pot Irish Whiskey

70cl / 40%

A whiskey that has been incredibly popular since its release a few years ago. This was awarded an incredible 93/100 by Jim Murray and also won 'Best Irish Blended Whiskey- Under €50' at the 2013 Irish Whiskey Awards. Rightly so, it is fantastic stuff.

€44.99

The Irishman Founders Reserve

70cl / 40%

Also from Walsh Whiskey, the Founders Reserve uses a similar blend of pot still and malt whiskey to the Writers Tears. This is great value for money and has a smooth and soft character with hints of spice and dried fruits.

€34.99

The Irishman Single Malt

70cl / 40%

A single malt that is approximately 10 years old and has been aged in both Sherry and Bourbon barrels. This is light and smooth with flavours of vanilla, toasted almonds, white flowers and honey.

€46.99

Now in the hands of tequila giants Jose Cuervo, Bushmills have been quietly getting on with making great whiskey in the same way they always have. We hope to see some interesting releases under their new owners, in the meantime here are some delicious single malts to enjoy.

Bushmills 16 Year Old Single Malt

70cl / 40%

Limited Availability

A very popular version of Bushmills, this has been matured in both Bourbon and Sherry casks before a finishing period in Port barrels. The wine casks have added some good complexity to what is an incredibly smooth single malt.

€74.99

Bushmills 21 Year Old Single Malt

70cl / 40%

Limited Availability

A very classy whiskey which was a previous class winner at the Irish Whiskey Awards. A finishing period in Madeira barrels has given this flavours of fudge, apricots, raisins and roasted nuts. Like all other Bushmills, this remains smooth and silky throughout.

€134.99

Gordon & Macphail

Gordon & Macphail are Scotland's most respected independent bottlers. They are based in Elgin near the mouth of the Spey River. For over 120 years they have been building relationships with other distilleries and have a core range of 'semi-official' bottlings that tend to offer better value for money than the distillery bottled versions. Mortlach is a perfect example, and the company offer a great range from this classic Speyside distillery.

Mortlach Distillery

Gordon & Macphail have always served this highly sought after distillery well. The company has good stocks of Mortlach dating back to the mid-1900's and recently released a very expensive 75 year old! The distillery is unique in Scotland, practising a complex form of partial triple distillation. The whiskies are mostly matured in high quality Sherry casks which contribute to the malt's rich, fruity and meaty complexity.

Mortlach 21 Year Old

70cl / 43%

A big staff favourite. This is classic Mortlach and has a beefy, meaty character from some use of good quality refill Oloroso Sherry casks. Lots of body and flavour with some intriguing charred oak nuances. Lovely stuff.

€119.<sup>99</sup>

Mortlach 1984

70cl / 40%

An incredible expression of Mortlach. Maturation in first use Sherry butts gives this some wonderful richness and complexity. Flavours of orange and strawberries along with some rich chocolate notes.

€269.<sup>99</sup>

Mortlach 1971

70cl / 43%

Part of Gordon & Macphail's Rare Vintage series. This has been entirely aged in 1st fill Sherry Butts giving it some gloriously rich flavours of milk chocolate, dates, orange peel and prunes. A very good after dinner dram.

€599.<sup>99</sup>

Speymalt- Macallan Distillery

This is a great range of independently bottled Macallan single malts and, compared to the distillery's own releases, these are especially good value. Essentially they are drinking whiskies, not for keeping as trophies like some of the almost unobtainable Macallans. Like the Mortlach bottlings, most of the Speymalt range are aged in top quality ex-Sherry barrels.

Speymalt-Macallan 2005

70cl / 43%

Matured in first fill and second fill ex-Sherry casks and bottled in 2014. This is a fresh and fruity style of Macallan with subtle sherry cask influences. This has vibrant tropical fruit flavours, with touches of white chocolate and strawberries making it a perfect aperitif malt.

€61.<sup>99</sup>

Speymalt-Macallan 1997

70cl / 43%

A perfectly aged example of Macallan. Like the 2005 this is aged in first and second fill Sherry casks. Here it has taken on some lovely charred oak characters along with hints of milk chocolate, spice and fresh fruits.

€109.<sup>99</sup>

Speymalt-Macallan 1981

70cl / 43%

Something a little bit different but equally as good as the other Speymalts. This expression is aged in first use Bourbon barrels and was bottled at 32 years old in 2013. This is packed with juicy fruits such as apricots and pineapple along with vanilla and ginger spice. Incredible stuff.

€469.<sup>99</sup>

Benriach 10 Year Old Curiositas Single Malt

70cl / 40%

Not your typical Speyside single malt. This is packed with more smoke/peat flavours and is almost as smoky as an Islay whisky. In addition there are some delicious pear, apple and vanilla flavours which give it a juicy sweetness.

€55.99

Benriach 12 Year Old Sherry Cask Single Malt

70cl / 46%

Incredibly well balanced and smooth. This is a classic Speyside single malt which has been matured in both Oloroso and Pedro Ximenez Sherry casks. One of the best value Sherry matured whiskies around.

€52.99

Arran 14 Year Old Single Malt

70cl / 46%

Building on the success of the previous 12 year old release, this cements the distillery's reputation as 'one to watch' amongst the new generation of Scottish whisky makers. Matured to absolute perfection in 1st fill Bourbon and Sherry barrels. This is great stuff.

€58.99

Cú Bócan Bourbon Cask Peated Single Malt

70cl / 46%

A smoky, peaty version of Tomatin malt. This time it is matured entirely in new or 'virgin' oak barrels. The fresh oak imparts flavours of boiled sweets, vanilla, toffee apples and banana confectionary. All embraced by some warm peat smoke.

€78.99

Springbank 10 Year Old Single Malt

70cl / 46%

Loved by whisky enthusiasts, Springbank is a real gem amongst Scottish distilleries. Their 10 year-old is lightly peated and made in a unique 2.5 times distillation process. A wonderfully juicy, salty and fruity single malt with just a whiff of peat smoke.

€57.99

Glendronach 18 Year Old Single Malt

70cl / 46%

Glendronach's form is so good at the moment; we believe it is bottling some of the best whisky in Scotland. Their 18 Year Old could not be better balanced. It is entirely aged in Oloroso Sherry barrels which gives it dense, dark fruit flavours and hints of chocolate and spice.

€90.99

Benromach 10 Year Old Single Malt

70cl / 46%

Whisky is never usually this good at 10 years old. This is made by two men in Speyside's smallest distillery and is carefully matured in the best oak possible. A complex, gently smoky, malty and slightly earthy tasting single malt.

Kavalan Single Malt Whiskies

Kavalan is a new Taiwan-based distillery that produced its first spirit in 2006. The whisky matures a lot faster than those in other countries thanks to the warm and humid climate, even at 2 years old tasters have been impressed. It has already won some very prestigious awards and often beats similar styled Scottish whiskies in blind tastings. Like Japan in recent years, it appears that Taiwan could become a real force in the whisky world. Kavalan is definitely here to stay and the quality of the whisky is top class.

So far the distillery has been awarded:

'Distillery of the Year' at the 2015 San Francisco Spirits Challenge

World's Best Whisky at the 2015 World Whisky Awards

Master Distiller of the Year- Ian Chang, 2015 Icons of Whisky Awards

Kavalan Classic Single Malt

70cl / 45%

Most customers are surprised at how good this is considering the price and lack of age statement. It compares very favourably to Speyside single malts. A smooth and malty flavoured whisky with delicious tropical fruit flavours.

Awards:

Outstanding at the International Wine and Spirit Competition 2015

Gold & Best in Class International Spirits Challenge 2015

€79.99

Kavalan Concertmaster Port Cask Finish Single Malt

70cl / 45%

Initially matured in traditional American oak whisky barrels before being finished in a combination of Ruby, Tawny and Vintage Port casks. This is deliciously fruity and soft with flavours of chocolate smothered cherries and spiced plums

€82.99

Kavalan Solist Ex-Bourbon Cask

70cl / 57.1%

Taken from a single Bourbon cask, the Solist series is reserved for the best selection of barrels in the company's inventory. This is powerful and explosive at full strength with very expressive flavours of coconut, vanilla, pineapple, cinnamon and banana.

Awards:

Gold Medal International Spirits Challenge 2015

Double Gold San Francisco Spirits Challenge 2015

€149.99

Kavalan Solist Ex-Sherry Cask

70cl / 57.8%

Incredibly dark in colour. This is reminiscent of very old Macallan whiskies. The Sherry cask influence is massive, giving rich, oaky flavours of cloves, allspice, chocolate, leather and fruit cake. Despite the massive flavours it retains some freshness and vibrancy.

Awards:

Double Gold San Francisco Spirits Challenge 2015

€169.99

JAPANESE WHISKY

Whiskies from Japan have been soaring in popularity for a few years now, ever since Jim Murray announced a limited edition Japanese malt as his top choice for the 2015 edition of his Whisky Bible. Unfortunately that is all long gone, but here we have some very fine (and more affordable) Japanese whiskies. These hit a convenient flavour profile that for many bridges the gap between the sweetness of Irish whiskies and Scottish single malts. We love them!

Taketsuru Pure Malt

70cl / 43%

One of our favourite Japanese whiskies. The non-age statement pure malt is comprised mostly of malt from Miyagikyo distillery with the remainder coming from Yoichi. All malt whiskies with some good use of sherry casks. Highly recommended.

€59.99

Nikka from the Barrel

50cl / 51.4%

This comes in a nifty little 50cl bottle making it a perfect travel companion. A soft yet richly flavoured blend from Nikka. This has been drawn from what are described as 're-casked barrels'. Precisely what this means is debatable, but the whisky tastes delicious!

Gold Medal - International Spirits Challenge 2013

€46.99

American Whiskey

America has recently seen a boom in craft distilling similar to the current renaissance in Ireland. There are now distilleries scattered across the whole of the USA many of them experimenting with highly innovative styles. This is just a small selection from our huge range of American whiskeys.

Bulleit Bourbon

70cl / 40%

Produced at the ancient Four Roses distillery in Kentucky this is a classic Bourbon with a fairly high rye grain content. Consistently one of the best standard Bourbons around

€38.99

Jefferson's Ocean

70cl / 45%

An exciting release from the Jefferson's range, this bourbon is initially matured on land for the lion's share of its maturation, before embarking on a sea-faring voyage, crossing the equator 4 times.

€99.99

Buffalo Trace Bourbon

70cl / 43%

From the distillery of the same name, this is a great Bourbon at a reasonable price. A high amount of corn in the mash bill gives this a soft, smooth and creamy texture with some sweet fruity notes.

€44.99

Eagle Rare 10 Year Old

70cl / 43%

The rareness of this great breed of bourbon is evident in its complex aroma of toffee, orange peel, herbs, honey, leather and oak as well as a smooth and distinctive palate of candied almonds and very rich cocoa.

San Francisco World Spirit Competition - Gold Medal

€51.99

Bertha's Revenge

70cl / 42%

Named after a legendary cow called Bertha who lived to the ripe old aged of 48 (real years, not cow years). This is fittingly made from whey, as opposed to grain and is distilled in small batch copper pot stills at Ballyvolane House in east Cork. The unique mix of botanicals includes grapefruit, cinnamon, cloves, cummin, elderflower, Alexanders and sweet woodruff.

€49.99

Dingle Gin

70cl / 42.5%

Distilled in small batches of 500 litres in a spirit still called Oisín. The distillery uses many locally sourced botanicals along with the more typical juniper and citrus. The local botanicals add a lovely herbaceous note that works incredibly well.

€33.99

Shortcross Gin

70cl / 46%

This is an exciting new small batch gin that is made in the Rade-mon Estate Distillery in Downpatrick. Some unusual botanicals are used, including apples, clover and elderberries. The result is a creamy and smooth gin with lots of flavour and a very harmonious character.

€52.99

Thin Gin

70cl / 40%

Thin Gin is a new Irish dry gin. The distinctive juniper perfume mingles with strong citrus notes of orange, lemon and lime on the nose. It uses all Irish-grown botanicals such as apple, wild thyme, elder flowers, white clover and tansy. Thin Gin is robust and stands up well when partnered with a good tonic.

Winner of "Best Irish Gin 2015" at the Irish Whiskey Awards.

COCKTAIL SUGGESTIONS

Rhubarb Martini

The origin of the "Classic Dry Martini" is known to cause debate among drinks enthusiasts worldwide. It is most likely a product of the "Golden Age of Cocktails" that took place in the United States during the 19th century, although the precise location of its discovery ranges from East to West coast with numerous style variations along the way. Below is our latest take on James Bond's favourite drink, bound to impress at any Christmas gathering.

Ingredients:

- 2 Shot (100ml) Bertha's Revenge Gin
- 1 Shot (25ml) Noilly Prat
- Dash Rhubarb Bitters

Method:

Stir all ingredients with ice and strain into a chilled glass

Champagne

We continue to offer prices on Champagne that are better than the supermarkets and our other competitors. We do not rely on clever tricks, multi-buy deals or false discount claims, just year-long low prices. In addition to an impressive range of Champagne we also stock Spain's finest Cava, Juvé y Camps plus some top prosecco and Cremant D'Alsace.

Veuve Clicquot Brut NV Champagne

75cl 12%

A richly flavoured Champagne that is easy to enjoy either with or without food. A high proportion of Pinot Noir grapes in the blend add plenty of weight and depth whilst around 30% of Chardonnay gives elegance and finesse. Shows ripe flavours of apples, quince and brioche.

€45.99

Moët & Chandon Brut Imperial NV Champagne

75cl 12%

The world's best known Champagne. Moët & Chandon offers consistent quality and affordability. Dry and delicately fruity with flavours of orchard fruits, toasted bread and yeast.

€41.99

Bollinger Special Cuvée NV Champagne

75cl 12%

Consistently one of the highest rated standard non-vintage Champagnes. Bollinger relies on a high proportion of Pinot Noir grapes for its richness and body. The flavours are intense and heady with ripe orchard fruits, a strong mineral presence and some toasty nuances.

€52.95

Pol Roger White Label NV Champagne

75cl 12.5%

The Pol Roger house style is all about elegance and most of their Champagnes contain a high proportion of Chardonnay. Their white label displays delicate flavours of fine bread, white flowers and a hint of toast. One of our favourites.

€40.99

Pol Roger Vintage Rosé 2006 Champagne

75cl 12.5%

A consistently good rosé from vintage to vintage. The 2006 is elegant and complex marked by creamy, strawberry, apricot and cherry fruit flavours with well-balanced acidity and medium body. Great value for a vintage rose from a top producer.

€59.99

Dom Perignon 2004 Champagne

75cl 12.5%

Widely considered to be one of the world's finest Champagnes. Dom Perignon focuses on producing the ultimate expression of a vintage and 2004 was superb. It is drinking very well now but will also reward some ageing.

Delord 25 Year Old Armagnac

70cl / 40%

One of the stars of the Delord range. This combines powerful and rich flavours with a succulent and smooth fruitiness. An incredible Armagnac that was recognised as one of the top ten spirits of all time in Paul Pacult's Spirit Journal.

96/100 Wine Enthusiast Magazine

'The nose is biscuity, caramel-like, cream Sherry-like with a touch of cheese-like rancio. The palate entry tastes like bittersweet dark chocolate, cocoa butter, chocolate-covered raisins and dark honey; the midpalate is fruity and less bittersweet than the entry, making for a succulent aftertaste. A genuine classic.'

CASTELL D'ENCUS - ONE OF THE WORLD'S MOST EXCITING WINERIES

Vermentino di Gallura Sciala 2013, Vigne Surrau, Sardinia

Vermentino is one of only four grape varieties to be awarded Italy's DOCG status. It is widely planted in Sardinia, producing fresh, clean wines such as Vermentino di Gallura. Made from the best grapes in the valley of Surrau, this is a full bodied and complex white wine with an intense aromatic bouquet.

Robert Parker 88+ Points 'Spicy and super zesty in the mouth, the 2013 Vermentino di Gallura Superiore Sciala is redolent of white flower, peach jasmine and dried ginger. Vermentino sometimes has a sage-like edginess and this wine delivers that quality in spades. If you like crisp whites to pair with fried fish, this is a perfect choice. The wine rests on its lees for five months with battonage and this process helps to add dimension and thickness on the finish.'

€19.99

Ekam 2013, Castell D'Encus, Catalonia

Riesling with a little albariño. Really fresh aromas of citrus, stone fruit and floral notes. Fabulous complex palate with lively acidity and a long lasting finish. Castell d'Encus is a boutique winery located in the Catalan Pyrenees. The winery has been designed to take full advantage of the environment, with ideal sun exposure and surrounding forestry, and are dedicated to sustainable farming methods.

Echo de Lynch Bages 2009, Pauillac, Bordeaux Limited Availability

Echo de Lynch is packed full of all the aromas, flavours and length associated with Pauillac wines. Round, soft and seductive in its youth with outstanding potential for bottle ageing.

Wine Spectator 91/100

'Delivers a lesson in Pauillac, with sleek black currant and fig fruit melded together, laced with graphite, tobacco and roasted cedar notes and backed by a long, iron-driven finish. This has grip, but the wine is made in a more accessible style for mid-term cellaring. Best from 2013 through 2019. 14,000 cases made.'

Gran Reserva 904 2004/5, La Rioja Alta, Spain

Robert Parker 96 points - 904 2005 vintage

'...This is usually my favorite wine from La Rioja Alta and 2005 is one of its best showings, going back to the quality of the vintages of the 1950s and 60s. The nose is very balsamic with notes of campbor, hints of mint, leather and hung game wrapped around a core of cherries in liqueur. Together it is balanced, subtle, truly elegant and classical. The palate is only medium-bodied but with great concentration of flavors that are very tasty, mineral, almost salty and framed by ultra-fine tannins and smashing balance. A great classic'

€44<sup>99</sup>

Acusp 2013, Castell D'Encus, Catalonia, Spain

This 100% Pinot Noir release has quickly become a staff favourite. Silky in the mouth with some yeasts and stone notes on the finish.

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate 2015

'One of the best wines produced with the finicky Pinot Noir grape in Spain, the 2013 Acusp was sourced from vines planted in 2003 at 1,000 meters altitude in a cold region from a very cold vintage that was part fermented in the old stone pools. The wine went through malolactic and 11 months aging in new French oak barrels. Despite all that, it feels fully ripe with some creamy notes and aromas of wild berries and spices. It is still a baby and showing the effect of the élevage, as is usually the case with this wine when so young. The texture is silky, the tannins are ultra-polished and it has good acidity with quite primary flavors that are precise and clean, more Pinot Noir than Costers del Segre. A very pleasant Pinot that needs to develop more nuances in bottle.'

€42<sup>95</sup>

Chianti Classico 2013, Castellare di Castellina, Tuscany

Blend of mainly Sangiovetto & Canaiolo that spends 7 months in French oak. This wine has great body and fruit flavours. Perfect to enjoy with all kinds of food, especially Italian dishes. Wine critics rate this wine very highly, always awarding over 90 points.

Sherry/Jerez

Sherry is a fortified wine from Spain that many experts rate as the most undervalued wine category in the world. We are huge fans and have Ireland's biggest and best selection. Sherry is produced in a variety of styles and works excellently with food. Try a fino sherry with smoked almonds as an aperitif, or some pedro ximenez drizzled over ice-cream for dessert. Perfect for the festive season!

Bodegas Tradicion Amontillado

75cl 19.5%

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate 96/100
